

March

It's March! Spring into March with lots of fun activities from DreamBox!

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
	1	2 Celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday by reading Green Eggs and Ham . Did you know the entire book only contains 50 different words? See if you can list them all!	3 Choose a favorite animal to research for World Wildlife Day. Pull together art and pictures, write a creative story featuring your animal and share with your family at dinner.	4 National Grammar Day. Start with the letters of your first name and see how many nouns you can match to each letter.	5	6 National Oreo® Day! Get a giant glass of milk and try some of the 25 flavors like peanut butter and birthday cake. Do LOTS of taste testing to find your favorite Oreo.
7 Whip up a batch of Rice Krispie Treats™ for National Cereal Day. Get creative by dipping them in chocolate or stirring in peanut butter chips.	8 For International Women's Day, think about women in your life you admire most. Reach out to tell them what they mean to you.	9	10 Pull out the veggies, the nuggets and the chips and start dipping on National Ranch Day!	11	12 Did you know the Girl Scouts sell more than 200 million boxes of cookies a year? If each box holds 24 cookies, how many does that make?	13
14 It's the best math day of the year – Pi Day! Round up your family and friends for this amazing Pi Day scavenger hunt and see all the ways 3.14 fits into the world around us.	15	16 Keep up the good math work by completing your five lessons on DreamBox this week!	17 Wear green for St. Patrick's Day. Learn about the history of the holiday and how it's celebrated around the world.	18	19 It's Let's Laugh Day. Share some good jokes with your family and friends. Try this one: Why is Cinderella bad at soccer? Because she's always running away from the ball!	20 The spring equinox brings dreams of warm sunshine. Start some veggie or flower seeds in a sunny window in preparation for spring planting. How many days until you see the plants sprout?
21 Try writing a haiku for World Poetry Day! Haiku is a traditional Japanese poem of 17 syllables in three lines that describe the beauty of nature. Watch this video to learn how to write a haiku.	22	23 On National Puppy Day, check out some of these great ideas to spoil your pup. No dog at home? Volunteer to walk a neighbor's dog and take it to the park to play. Don't forget the treats!	24	25	26 Today is Make Your Own Holiday! Think about what you love to do and celebrate it all day long with crafts and foods. Maybe have Butterfly Day, Football Day or Grape Soda Day. Get creative!	27 Passover begins at sundown. This sacred time is about freedom because it celebrates the Jewish liberation from slavery in Egypt. Learn more here and talk with your family about the importance of freedom.
28 Palm Sunday, the last day of Lent, begins the Christian holy week leading to Easter Sunday on April 4.	29	30	31 On National Crayon Day, break out the big box and create spring-themed pictures to decorate the house, and make flowers to hang in the windows.
